BRIGADA PIRATA

PLUNDERIN' GOOD FORTUNE!

Ahoy, m'johnnies! Brigada Pirata is pillagin' an' plunderin' on the Seven Seas! Aye, we would like ta come an' plundarrrrr the Colonies, too: only time shall tell, buckoes...! Arrrrrr! Keep a weatharr eye open, an' maybe ye shall see our jolly roger wavin' on the horizon.

make port in the german lands again at the beginnin' o' next year, playin' at Wacken Winter Nights, an' maybe at Wacken Open Air, too (but this has ta be confirmed).

In this year the ill-famed brigantine called Brigada Pirata has fired the nine poundarrrrs in many different lands. We arrrr just back from Germany: in the end o' May we have played at RPC (Role Play Convention) in Cologne. It has been wondarrrrful ta meet our german supportarrrrs again, an' they have been nice ta us, cheerin' all the time, an' singin' along wi' Captain Boozer! We must thank our german management for this: an' they shall bring us back ta Germany in october, when we shall play at the majestic festival called Autumn Moon, held in Hamelin (aye, m'earties, that's the town o' Tha Pied Piper o' Hamelin!). There we shall fire aside wi' great international bands, like Faun an' Front242 (meknows, we play a different kind o' music..., but everybody needs a pirate ta party wi', so, they want us at Autumn Moon!). An' most likely we shall

On the italian front, we were in Genova at the beginnin' o' June, an' we shall be in Trieste at the end o' the same month: there we shall plundarrrr the well-known international event called Triskell Celtic Festival, sharin' the stage wi' The Pyrates, from Holland. There's a nice story 'bout this, Years ago Captain Walt Boozer o' Brigada Pirata an' Captain David Gallows o' The Pyrates met on the High Seas o' internet whilst lookin' fer otharrrr pirate folk bands in Europe. Aye, it was a long time ago, an' we found no one else, but the two o' us. So, we started chattin' an' keepin' in touch. At that time Cap'n Gallows lived in England, at Exceter. Although we tried, we nevarrr had the chance ta meet in flesh an' bones durin' all these years. But now, on June 30th, we shall share the same stage, an' finally we shall meet an' say "Arrrrrr!" togetharrrr! That's why this will be a memorable moment. Then, in July Brigada Pirata shall sail ta Certaldo (Firenze), a wondarrrrful medieval town, in which it is held Mercantia, a busker festival that needs our pirate swords!

May 2018. Actually we have 3 new songs: Tarantacle (a freakish tarantella 'bout the Kraken), Cheap grog & cheaparr wenches (a lively song 'bout pirates w/ no booty), an' Down ta the depths (an intense mood song 'bout livin' an' dyin' followin' the believed ideals). An' we arrrrr workin' on many new tracks: just ta make some possible titles, Rusty pirate's sword, Nine Poundarrrrs, Santa fer pirates, Fair winds reel, an' the collaboration w/ our guest cajonist, Duke MacAbre aka Volker Dornemann (volkertoons.de), on a song called Undarrrr the Gallows. Wait an' see, m'earties! Arrrrrr!

An' there arrrrr many otharrrr gigs in sight. An' a lot o' collaborations w/ managers an' promoters. All o' this is kept abreast on our internet port: brigadapirata.com

Our hope is ta come an' cheer w/ the Canadian an' American pirates next year: an' we have a great help an' a great friend in Captain Smoo (Marck Forget) an' MFT Production fer this. So, maybe we shall set sails for the Colonies in 2018.

Lots o' things have developed: that's the way o' the sea. As the wind changes, Brigada Pirata follows the stream, an' her hull dances w/ the waves. Keep yer eyes on the horizon, buckoes: we arrrrrr comin' closarrrrr!

'Mong the waves o' this rollin' ocean o' things ta do, we arrrrr also writin' new songs. Aye, m'johnnies, Brigada Pirata is plannin' the new album! We hope ta release it not latarrrr than
